SMALL'S LEAD IS REDUCED, LOWDEN
GAINS DOWNSTATE
ERROR IN CHICAGO COUNT
CUTS THOMPSON'S PLURALITY.

Mc KINLEY WINS
Governor's Candidate for Senator Appears to Have Defeated Smith.

[By Associated Press.]
Chicago, Sept. 17.—The 5,078 out of 5,727 precincts in Illinois heard from, Lowden's lead over John G.
Oglesby in the gubernatorial race for the gubernatorial nomination has been reduced to 5,420 votes.

An error of 6,463 in the City News Bureau's figures for the 22nd ward of Chicago reduced Small's plurality by that vote.

The 5,078 precincts give for governor: Cook county, 2,114 precincts, Oglesby, 103,457; Small, 103,457.
Downstate, 2,334 precincts, Oglesby, 220,532; Small, 144,084. Grand total, 5,078 precincts, Oglesby, 323,989; Small, 323,488.

Lowden Wins Downstate.
Small polled his heaviest vote in Chicago, where he received the support of the Thompson republicans, while Oglesby's strength came from the downstate Lowden republicans.

Congressman W. B. McKinley, Lowden candidate for senator, appeared to have defeated Frank L.
Smith, supported by Mayor Thompson.

The vote in 5,078 out of 5,727 precincts in the state for United States senator gives: McKinley, 228,442; Smith, 228,442.

Democratic Race Close.
The official canvass next Tuesday probably will be necessary to determine the democratic senatorial winner, Robert E. Burke and Peter Walter continued to run neck and neck.

8,737 in Illinois for governor give:

Oglesby, 47,249.

for United States senator: Democratic, Burke, 52,002; Walter, 52,

STATE DEMOCRATS GET CANDIDATE'S NAMES ON BALLOT
[By Associated Press.]
Madison, Wis., Sept. 17.—Complications made at the office of the secretary of state on Friday show that the democratic state ticket is safely on the state ballot. The returns show that 60 per cent of the county ticket has been nominated.

It requires about 11,000 votes to put a democratic ticket on the state ballot. With returns missing from 10 counties including Milwaukee and Dane, where all registered voters must vote, the secretary of state's office at noon today showed that 711 votes had been cast for the democratic ticket.

In 61 counties of the state not including Milwaukee and Dane, the socialist cast a total vote of 1,000 for the state ticket. Colman, the socialist candidate for governor received 8,905 votes and Kleist, the socialist candidate for lieutenant governor received 8,850 votes. Socialist leaders declare that the socialists in the state in the primary vote in the state at the primary.

MAC SWINEY SLEEPS BETTER, NO PAIN IN HEAD, FASTS 36 DAYS
London, Sept. 17.—Lord Mayor Frederick Mac Swiney of Cork, who today began the 36th day of his hunger strike, Brixton prison, passed a somewhat better night and a little less pain in the head, but he is not yet fit to eat. The Irish Self-Determination league. The bulletin said pains in his limbs and back were less, but he was suffering from the pain in his head from which he has complained. It was declared a doctor had found him apparently conscious, but that he was still comatose.

In his report to the home office, the physician at the prison declared there was no change in the lord mayor's condition except that a marked deterioration was noticeable daily.

TRIAL OF LYNAUGH MOVED TO JEFFERSON
Madison, Sept. 17.—The trial of Matthew Lynaugh, on a charge of first degree murder in conspiracy with the shooting of a woman, will begin at 10 o'clock in Jefferson courtroom. Judge A. C. Hoppmann of superior court granted a change of venue assisted by the defense attorney, for the defense asked that the trial be held in Rock county, but this was opposed by District Attorney Royce of Jefferson grounds of the state's influence in that county.

The defendant is accused of the gravest offense one can be accused of, said Judge Hoppmann. "If I ever want to err in the defendant's favor, there will be nearly 8,000 citizens around at the time of the trial and this fact may or may not have an influence on my trial. It appears to me very clearly that I should grant this motion."

8,969 citizens of Rock and adjoining counties PAID for a copy of Thursday's Gazette. This is just another little proof that the Gazette is EVERY-BODY'S PAPER.

Wife Held for Murder

Mrs. Ethel Hutchins Nott.

Bridgeport, Conn.—Charged with helping an infatuated youth, Edward W. Wade, to murder her husband on August 25 last, Mrs.
Ethel Hutchins Nott will go to trial here soon together with Wade.
Both must answer charges of first degree murder. Wade admits the killing, but says he committed the act in self defense. Mrs. Nott refuses to talk.

Mrs. Nott is accused by her pretious daughter, Ruth, of assisting in the murder of her father, George B.
Nott, formerly superintendent of the United Metallic Cartridge Company plant here.

Ruth told that on the morning of August 25 her father, covered with blood, staggered down the stairs.
Mrs. Nott, it is alleged, was the first to see him.

That successor, it appeared today, will be Alexander Millerand, president of the French Republic, who will be elected Friday, September 24, although the date will be fixed only after parliament meets Tuesday.

Definite decision was reached by the cabinet today that the parliament should be convened next Tuesday to receive the resignation. The premier informed the cabinet that President Deschanel had insisted upon the immediate acceptance of his resignation.

Aside from M. Millerand, the candidate who seems to be most favored to succeed President Deschanel continues to be Charles Jonnart, France's ambassador to the Vatican.

CANADIAN SHIPPING ON LAKES PARALYZED
Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., Sept. 17.— A general strike of all seamen on Canadian lake steamers which went into effect yesterday seemed likely to have paralyzed Canadian shipping on the Great Lakes through this port. Four big ore freighters are tied up at docks at Port Arthur.

The strike is said to be for an advance in wages for all classes of seamen, and was called by the International Seamen's Union of America. American shipping is not affected.

Here's an Idea
Have you any furniture or stoves about the house which are not being used? If you have, why not advertise them in the classified section of the Gazette and turn them into spending money.
Read what wonderful results were secured by one Janesville woman.
Insertion of a classified ad in the Gazette," said Mrs. R. L. Foraker, 1419 Clark street.

You can do the same.
Look around the house and if you find anything you do not need call 77 either phone and the Want Ad girl will take your ad.

HARDING SOUNDS CHALLENGE WILSON OR WASHINGTON?

SAYS TIME HAS COME TO CHOOSE BETWEEN CON-STITUTION AND LEAGUE.

WAR WITH HAYTI
Senator Denounces "Rape" of Two Little Republics in South.

[By Associated Press.]
Marion, Ohio, Sept. 17.—Pronouncing the league of nations covenant irreconcilable with the American constitution, Senator Harding declared in a Constitution Day address that the time had come for the United States to decide whether it would preserve or abandon the charter under which it achieved national independence.

"The constitution or the covenant, said, "the two are irreconcilable.
We cannot be governed from Canberra and Washington. We cannot follow our present chief magistrate without forsaking the Father of our country."

The republican nominee assailed the administration's policy toward the nations of the western hemisphere, asserting that the executive had usurped congressional powers to carry out an unconstitutional war with Hayti and San Domingo. He declared the recent interference of Franklin D. Roosevelt in the election of a president democratic nominee revealed officially the American government's "rape" of two little republics.

The speech was delivered from the front porch to delegations from several Ohio counties.
"America Has Never Failed," said, "and despite the constitution, and despite the American people, and despite the American government, America has never failed in the world." We must observe the mandates of the constitution of the United States.
We are not doing so now. We are not actually with Germany, but we are actually with the little republics of our own hemisphere.
The wars were made and are being waged through the usurpation by the executive of powers not only never bestowed upon him, but scrupulously withheld by the constitution.

Thousands Killed in Hayti "Practically all the sailors have thousands of native Haytians have been sacrificed by American marines, and that many of our own gallant men have sacrificed their lives in the defense of laws drafted by an assistant secretary of the navy, and the source of the trouble is to secure a vote in the league and to continue the domination which at this moment requires the presence of no less than 8,000 of our armed men on that foreign shore."

Power Transferred
"Vastly more important and far more menacing to our own people than the proposal to transfer the executive power to a transfer by indirect action, the chief personality of the league is the transfer of power to the executive, the

The Instrument of Quality

Sonora

Clear as a Bell

The name Sonora on your phonograph denotes the HIGHEST CLASS OF
TALKING MACHINES IN THE WORLD, for it plays all records better than you ever heard them played before, without the scratch that you often hear in some other machines, that is so annoying to listen to. You may put the SONORA to any test you like, with your eyes open or closed, and you will find the quality there every time.

The best test I know of is to place any other phonograph up beside the SONORA and note the difference in quality of tone.

When you are ready to buy, hear the SONORA, note the beautiful clear, full, and mellow tone. Avoid mistakes by purchasing the SONORA.

Satisfaction brings happiness and joy to the heart.

The SONORA brings joy and gladness in the home.

Woolen Output Here In Year Enough To Clothe Local Males 12 Years

BY RODNEY WILSH
Janesville manufactures enough woolen goods every month to clothe its entire male population for a whole year.

Old Crompton, who invented the woolen mule back in 1779, would gape in wonderment at the fact that the Rock River Woolen Mills weaves 500,000 yards or 233 miles of goods every year.

The modern method of converting the raw wool into a firm textile is an intricate detailed process.

Raw wool from all parts of the country is brought to the mills in carloads and dumped into the vats where it is taken to a huge automatic scouring machine which thoroughly washes it. From here it passes to the carding machine, a new and intricate apparatus, which removes the burrs and separates the wool fibres, allowing the wool to pass from the machine in long, delicate, white yarns about as thick as a pencil.

Wound Into Spools
This delicate yarn is wound into large spools that are then taken to the mule where the yarn is pulled out and spun into fine wool threads and rewound. Sometimes the wool is dyed before it is spun, and often the goods are woven and then dyed.
This is called piece dyeing.

From the mule the thread goes to the weaving department. Some of the threads, the coarser ones, are used for warp, and the others for filling. The warp is run through a harness (a series of many wheels which separate the threads), making a level sheet of hundreds of threads.
Through these threads the shuttle flies, this weaving in the filling of the cross threads.

Specialized Weaving Machines The character and the pattern of the cloth is determined by the machine which weaves it. The threads which separate the threads, drawn through the harness per inch. The machines are of such a specialized nature that they can be made to weave a picture of a horse, a lion, or a name in many different colors, merely by arranging the warp in the

From the looms the cloth is run through a measure to determine the number of ounces per yard. When the cloth, if the yarn has not already been dyed, goes to the dyeing room, where it is treated in huge vats. Hundreds of yards of goods at one time. Next it is washed in a giant washing machine, thus setting the dye.

Drying Last Process
Next comes the drying machine, which has a capacity for drying 10,000 yards per day.

The goods is then wound on bolts and made ready for shipment.
This mill was one of the first industries in Janesville. It was established here in 1846. From a tiny industry located on North Main street it has grown and expanded so that it now occupies two large factories, one at Monterey and one on Franklin street, and employs 200 people. The material is shipped to leading clothing manufacturers all over the country.

BUS WILL CARRY KIDDIES TO SCHOOL

Holt's Innovation to Transport Kindergarten Pupils in Effect Monday.

Provisions have been made whereby the children of the Washington and Webster kindergartens, where facilities are inadequate, will receive their training at the Douglas school, which is the largest of the best equipped kindergartens in the city. The little people will be transported to school in the Stringer's bus, a bonded vehicle. On each trip they will be accompanied by a kindergarten teacher.

Kindergarten for those from the Washington and Webster schools will begin Monday morning, the former having school in the morning and the latter group having its session in the afternoon. Those from the Washington district will leave the school grounds at 8:40 a. m. and will be returned at the same place at 3:30 p. m. The bus will be operated by the Douglas school. Pupils from the Webster school will meet there at 1:15 to attend kindergarten with children from the Douglas school.

Jackson Pupils Too.
If any children in the vicinity of the Jackson school are of kindergarten age the bus will carry them to and from the Jackson to the Douglas school in the same manner as it does the other children. "New York" has been asked to place P. O. Holt, superintendent of schools, who has this matter in charge.

It was impossible under the conditions to hold kindergarten in either the Washington or the Webster schools," said Mr. Holt. "New arrangements had to be made, and the chief concern of the school authorities was to make certain that safe transportation could be secured.
This has been done. Parents need feel no concern over the care that will be exercised by those who are in charge."

Reasons for Change.
Had the new plan not been made the little pupils of the Webster school would have been without a teacher this year, and those at the Washington school would have been compelled because of overcrowding conditions, to attend in a house near the school building. Here the children would not have obtained such training as should be afforded them.

"Go West, Young Woman, and Wed," Is Advice of Mrs. Towne

Holyoke, Mass.—"Go west, young man," said Morace Greeley; "Go west, young woman," paraphrased Elizabeth Towne, editor of the Nautilus and leader in the New Thought movement in an interview here.

Mrs. Towne was discussing marriage, something she believes every man and woman should be interested in. She had quoted from statistics that there are 76,000 more women in than men in the state of Massachusetts, and then again that there are more men than women in vertice for husbands for them," she said.

Because the New Thought sect doubt the propriety of such advertising it is not included in the Nautilus, but Mrs. Towne believes there should be some agency to offer the assistance asked.

"I would have a government matrimonial bureau," she continued, "with state and local agencies attached to it. I admire the mayor of one of the cities in the state of Washington who did just this sort of thing."

"And I am on now to the conscription idea; not conscription for the military, though I favored that for conscription for the great agricultural fields of the west. Not only the men should we conscript but some of the surplus women power of the east, doomed now to old maidhood because there are not enough men for all of them. Let them go out into the great wheat fields, there to subside nature. Let the women and men mingle in their social hours that they may learn to know and love each other."

Safeguarded by Chaperons.
Mrs. Towne laughed aside the caution expressed by her interviewer as to the moral dangers of such a conscription of men and women.
"I have the greatest respect for the high moral standards of young healthy Americans," she countered,
"but, of course, I would favor proper chaperons."

Every woman should be married, excepting those physically unfit and have children. But I believe a woman should have only as many children as she can properly care for.

Mrs. Towne preaches marriage, and she has been married twice herself. She believes in children and has two of her own. Her home at 95 Beach street is a combination private residence and the business house of the Elizabeth Towne company. Situated on the top of the Connecticut valley, it speaks well for the business acumen of the woman who came here twenty years ago with but $30 borrowed capital to begin her advocacy of her doctrines.

Mrs. Towne has been an ardent supporter of the woman suffrage movement for many years.

"Go West, Young Woman, and Wed," Is Advice of Mrs. Towne

Holyoke, Mass.—"Go west, young
man," said Morace Greeley; "Go
west, young woman," paraphrased Elizabeth Towne, editor of the Nautilus and leader in the New Thought
movement in an interview here.

Mrs. Towne was discussing marriage, something she believes every
man and woman should be interested in. She had quoted from statistics that there are 76,000 more
women in than men in the state of Massachusetts, and then again that
there are more men than women in
said.

Because the New Thought sect
doubt the propriety of such advertising it is not included in the Nautilus, but Mrs. Towne believes there
assistance asked.

"I would have a government matrimonial bureau," she continued, "with state and local agencies
attached to it. I admire the mayor of one of the cities in the state of Washington who did just this sort of thing."

"And I am on now to the con-
the military, though I favored that
for conscription for the great agricultural fields of the west. Not only the men should we conscript
but some of the surplus women
power of the east, doomed now to
old maidhood because there are not

Safeguarded by Chaperons.
Mrs. Towne laughed aside the
caution expressed by her interviewer as to the moral dangers of such a conscription of men and women.
"I have the greatest respect for
the high moral standards of young
healthy Americans," she countered,
"but, of course, I would favor
proper chaperons."

Every woman should be married, excepting those physically unfit and have children. But I believe a woman should have only as
care for.

Mrs. Towne preaches marriage,
and she has been married twice
herself. She believes in children
at 95 Beach street is a combination
private residence and the business
house of the Elizabeth Towne company. Situated on the top of the Connecticut valley, it speaks well
for the business acumen of the
capital to begin her advocacy of her
doctrines.

Mrs. Towne has been an ardent supporter of the woman suffrage
movement for many years.

Walk 10 Miles Daily And Be Healthy Says O'Leary

BY FRANK SINGLARI

Walk 10 miles a day, go to bed early and get up early, eat heartily and plainly—follow these three rules and you'll be healthy and happy. So says Dan O'Leary, champion long distance walker of the world since 1875, who dropped in to pay Janesville a visit today.

And Dan, who at 70 years still walks a mile in eight minutes, has a message for the women too.

Walking Better Than Powdering.
"If the women would make a habit of walking 10 miles a day," he said, "they would never have an occasion to use paint or powder. Paint and powder do not make them young."

Men who are confined to sedentary work should get out and hike 10 miles a day, says O'Leary. He explained that this walking, however, should not be done when the person is tired or it would act as a strain instead of a benefit. Further, he stated, when walking, making a study of the exercise so that every muscle gets into action.

10 Miles for Women, Too.
"Do you mean to advise women to walk as much as 10 miles each day?" he was asked.

"Yes, that is not any too much for them to do," he said.

"People nowadays depend too much upon their automobiles and the street cars," said the veteran. "If they have only four blocks to go, they jump into their machine. If it keeps on raining, they will be a lost art."

Get to Bed Early.
As to sleep, Dan says to get to bed at 10 o'clock and arise between five and six. Sleep, and not too much of it, is essential to good health, according to his experience, and at 70 he looks no older than some men at 65.

Now as to the way to walk. O'Leary says the first thing is to stand erect and take a long stride, coming down solidly on the heel, pushing with the toe. For speed in walking he swings his arms in a cross-motion across his chest and sways his body simultaneously. The shoes should be soft, preferably of viol-kid, with rubber heels not more than an inch and a quarter high.

O'Leary is in southern Wisconsin planning to stage an exhibition match with Charles Peterson of Rockford as a preliminary to the ball game between the Beloit Praries and the Toledo Railroaders at Beloit Sunday at 2:30 o'clock. The distance to be covered will be two miles and must be finished within 20 minutes. He says he will easily beat his opponent, who is 25 years of age.

Born on June 23, 1841, O'Leary has walked 250,000 miles in his life, his longest trip being from New York to San Francisco. In 1875 he wrested the championship of the world from Edward Payson Weston at Chicago, and later defeated the same walker in England. In 1907, he staged a six day walking race with Henry Schmeitl in Germany, whom he beat by 64 miles. Next month, he plans to walk from Chicago to Dallas, Texas, a distance of 1,000 miles, allowing himself 20 days, which will force him to average 50 miles daily.

While most of his walking now is based upon endurance, he still has greater speed than many walkers. In his prime, he was able to cover a mile in seven minutes, when he was able to walk 21 miles in three hours.

O'Leary hopes to be able to put on a walking match Sunday, Sept. 25, as a preliminary to the ball game here between the Samsons and the Case club of Racine.

TO WOMEN BOWLERS.

The City Bowling association desires to form a league of women bowlers this season. The women bowlers made last year, but the start was made too late. If you bowl, or would like to enjoy the invigorating sport found in the alleys, send your name and address at once to H. M. Lampert, care Samson Tractor Co. He will keep you informed of progress.

John Teston started this class by placing a team on the alleys, and the Moose lodge followed. The teams line-up are in addition, the American Express, Golden Eagle, the Rock River Machine Co., Bostwick's and the Daily Gazette. It is expected that at least 16 teams will join the league and make the season more successful than last year.

Steps are being taken to get a Samson Industrial League organized on a firm foundation. While the league had a strong circuit at the start of the 1919 season, they failed to keep up the pace throughout. This will not happen this year.

Further plans for the coming season are to be made at a meeting to be held tonight at the office of Harry V. Ross, 208 W. Milwaukee street, when the board of directors of the City Bowling association and the membership committee will meet at 8 o'clock.

INDIANS IN LEAD; DODGERS TIGHTEN

The Cleveland Indians went back into first place in the American league race Thursday by nailing Washington 1 to 0. While the Senators allowed them only three hits, they managed to put over the only run of the game. Their new twirler, Mails, held Washington to four scattered bingles.

The other two contenders in the American league, Chicago and New York, fought out a battle that went to the White Sox. With "Babe" Ruth gunning for his fifteenth home run, the White Sox met the New York Yankees again in Chicago today in the second of the three game series which will play a large part in deciding the championship of the American league.

Brooklyn widened the gap separating it from Cincinnati to six games when the Superbas won Thursday from the Reds, 5 to 3. The two teams meet again today at Ebbets field. The New York Giants still a possible contender, are six and a half games behind the leaders.

BELOIT COLLEGE GETS 13 OUT AT PRACTICE

Beloit, Sept. 17.—Thirteen Beloit college football candidates answered Coach Mills' call for initial grid drill on the college field and two busy periods of linebacking practice were held. Mills was busy giving out equipment, and spent but a short time at the field, turning over the drill to Captain Jim McCarthy and to "Windy Bill" Kentrow, regular of last year's team. Kentrow will not be back in school, but was on hand to help with the early work. More candidates are arriving today, and it is expected that more than thirty-five would-be Gold stars will be before school starts two weeks hence.

Syracuse, N. Y., Sept. 17.—Edward P. (Pop) Geers was injured here this afternoon when he was thrown from his sulky in the third heat of the 2:07 trot at the grand circuit races. He drove Wilk to second place, but just as the horse crossed the line it stumbled, and in falling threw Geers heavily to the track.

His condition is said not to be serious.

Ratification With a Twist.

One with a pretty wit said: "I think he will, although he said he would."

Put Women on Juries Here?--Yes, Officials Say, but Not Just Yet

BY ELLA SCHULZ

GOODBYE, all night jury sessions. They are unnecessary. So say the newly enfranchised women of Rock county who aspire to jury service now that they have the right.

Hello to longer debates and many more nights of jury deliberations, say the men who think they know women and what their entrance into jury service will mean.

Will women's names be drawn next Monday for service on circuit court juries this fall? Judge George Grimm of the circuit court thinks not, and the three jury commissioners George McKee, John Miller, Robert M. Avelon, and W. O. Hansen, Beloit, nod assent. Women will have to wait, they say.

"Jury service is a burden and not a picnic," said Judge Grimm, thoughtfully, when questioned as to whether or not women would serve for the coming term. The judge thinks that the women have enough burdens at present without adding this one.

"Although they now have the right to act as jurors, they are not ready for it in this county," said Mr. McKee. "In my opinion housewives and women engaged in certain professions should be exempt, and no woman should be allowed to serve until the legislature has provided reasonable exemption for them peculiar to their sex and condition."

Some Men Are Exempt. The statutes provide certain exemptions for men. Such persons as attorneys, doctors, surgeons, dentists, ministers, state or national bank presidents, cashiers, presidents, professors, instructors and assistants in universities, colleges, or academies are among those who can claim exemption from service. Jury service for women is coming in this county, whether or not the chivalrous men desire to take all the "burden" on their own shoulders. In the meantime men jurors must be busy reforming, so that when the daily feminine stampede into the jury room she will not find a stuffy place reeking with tobacco smoke; she will never hear half-hearted outcries; for all such things will be passed when women join the sessions behind closed doors.

Will Add Refinement. "Women will be a refining element in the court room," said Mr. C. Burpee, Janesville lawyer, who favors women acting as jurors. Roger G. Cunningham, city attorney, also voiced the same sentiment when he said: "Not only do I think that women should be allowed to serve on the juries, but I think they will be a great help as well." E. H. Peterson, attorney, expressed his opinion that one of the jury commissioners in the future should be a woman.

In questioning Mr. Cunningham as to what kind of cases he would put a woman on, he said: "It would make no difference. I do not think that there is any kind of case between a man and a woman as far as cases are concerned."

Woe to the "Vamp." Whether or not this is true, it still remains a fact that the "vamp" in the eternal triangle cases would get dire punishment should a woman jury judge. Then, too, in cases involving the unwritten law it is thought that a woman's intuition would be an asset.

But if the sentiment expressed by Judge Grimm and the commissioners be taken as final, women will have to wait and the men jurors can slowly say goodbye to friend Nicotine.

MANY CARELESS IN CROSSING TRACKS, STATE WATCHMEN

Carelessness in crossing the railroad tracks at Five Points is growing, according to observations made by the several watchmen and gate-men guarding that grade. This is particularly true, it is stated, at the rush hours, mainly in the morning and evening.

An instance came up Thursday in which two women hastening to their work passed under the lowered gates and narrowly escaped being hit by a passenger train as it pulled out of the station. Warned by Watchman Arthur Reed to stay back, they refused, declaring they were in a hurry.

Vehicular traffic at Five Points has increased considerably since the traffic count for the railroad commission was made, it is said. When the compilation was made, showing 265 autos, 233 bicycles and motor-cycles, and 143 teams in three days of 24 hours each, two streets were torn up and being paved, making it impossible to use but one or two of the five streets there.

Minsk

An Old and Interesting City Where Bolshevism Had Its Start—Place Where Poles and Soviets Meet to Talk Peace.

"One of the least interesting among Russian cities in its physical aspects, Minsk has an economic history that helps in understanding how Bolshevism spread so rapidly among the Russian people," says a National Geographic Society bulletin concerning the city where the Poles and the Bolsheviks have been meeting to discuss peace.

The industrial history of Minsk is especially significant in view of present conditions in Russia. It was one of the centers where ideas long germinated which blossomed forth so suddenly into Bolshevism under the influence of war distress. There, in the early nineties of the last century a group of dilettantes formed a Working Men's Union, later more accurately termed the Union for Struggle. Prominent of literature, smuggled into the country or printed in secret, was a major activity of this group in Minsk. Few workmen belonged to it.

In the course of five years these groups, working in Moscow, St. Petersburg and Minsk, had accumulated a number of followers, few of whom agreed that they gave wide publicity to the doctrines of Marx, mixed indiscriminately with every variety of radicalism, native and imported. With such a diversity of aims little was accomplished, and it was with the hope of formulating a definite program that the Union for Struggle and a committee of the Jewish Bund met in Minsk in 1908. From that meeting arose the Social Democratic Working Men's Party.

The party's aims of various groups at that conference have a familiar ring. One urged that labor seek complete liberation, free of capital; another broadly declared for immediate improvement of the condition of every working man; a third frankly provided that the mass of their adherents should be disciplined by continuous agitation.

Labor Party Among Jews. "Once more Minsk figured in an interesting chapter of Russia's economic history when Zubatov set two women to organize a labor party, among the Jews, under police protection. Originally an agent provocateur, Zubatov, when promoted to a high office among the political police, undertook to organize laboring men so their growing discontent would be directed against employers rather than against government officials. In Minsk a rival organization, the Universal Jewish Labor Union, immediately was formed, which quickly eliminated the police union."

Minsk is built upon the Svislock River, nearly 500 miles southwest of Moscow by rail, and has a population of 105,000, fully half of whom are Jews. It was the capital of the old Russian government of Minsk, which included some of the least fertile and least developed regions of the fallen empire.

Its annual fair, held in March, furnished the chief event in the town's life. Its trade, mainly in corn, lumber and leather, gained perceptibly when it became the intersection point of the railway from Moscow to Warsaw and that from Libau to Kharukov. Formerly it maintained a municipal government.

"The city has passed through the hands of many masters. In the time of William the Conqueror it was a dependency of the Princes of Poles. By the close of the twelfth century it had fallen into the hands of Lithuania. Three hundred years later it belonged to Poland and at the time of the French Revolution Russia acquired it. Napoleon occupied it in 1812."

ROYALTY CUSTOMS ARE PASSING WITH TIME IN JAPAN

Tokio.—A tendency of the times in Japan is the effort made toward bringing the imperial house and the people of the country closer on a basis of greater mutual sympathy. Until some years ago, all public traffic used to be suspended for about an hour before the passage of a member of the imperial family but now it is only for the moment that any suspension of traffic is made. A system has been introduced to admit of an individual appeal direct to the throne on social as well as personal affairs.

Viscount Kiyooka, of Kioto, has requested that the imperial detached palace in Kioto be thrown open to the general public giving the following reasons:

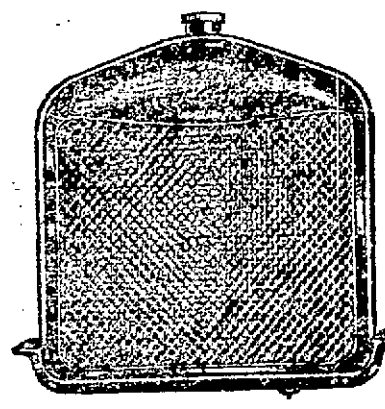

"The recent war seems to have instilled in the minds of some Japanese ideas that are incompatible with the traditions of the Yamato people. If things are allowed to take their own course, the sure result will be that the people will drift apart from the throne until an estrangement sets in that will spell ruin to the country at large. One of the most effective ways for the Japanese to prevent such a calamity is to foster new links of sympathy between the throne and the people and to bring them closer together. The throwing open of the detached palace in Kioto to all, instead of a privileged few, will aid greatly in realizing this object."

Remember the Horse-Shoe Tread

Janesville's Most Dreaded Corner

At Main and Milwaukee Streets—where the city's traffic is heaviest, and cars from the north and south swing into the rapid procession of vehicles--where thoughtless motorists turn off suddenly without signal--can you stop quickly or turn sharply, even when the pavement is wet?

That's where the man who drives Horse-Shoe Cords feels safe. He knows he can trust the stubborn grip of these tires to hold his car firmly to the most slippery asphalt.

Each little shoe in the Horse-Shoe tread, forming a near-vacuum, cleaves noiselessly to the road on wet pavements or in making sharp turns.

Users of Horse-Shoe Cord Non-Skid Tires tell us they never feel that exhaustion which so often follows a day of wet weather driving.

Many motorists drove Horse-Shoe Cords all last winter without tire chains.
